

July 14, 2008

To Whom It May Concern:

We recently contracted with College Works to paint the exterior of our two story home.

Their work was excellent and their attention to details such as cleaning up, trim and sealing off window areas was especially refreshing in this day and age.

Color matching was perfect and they came when they said they would and completed the work involved on time and with professionalism and courtesy.

We would recommend them to anyone looking for a first class job.

Nancy & Peter Dunning

Naperville Ill.